

Paper food trays come in an array of sizes, serving small sides to full meals. The grease-resistant polyethylene lining and simple-yet-strong glued structure provide the right amount of performance and durability for dining both on-and-off premises. This product line works with hot and cold foods, including salad, coleslaw, street tacos, chicken wings, sandwiches, and fries. Food trays are ideal for a variety of venues, including food trucks, cafeterias, stadiums, delis, and quick-service restaurants.

Sustainability

- Fiber used meets the Sustainable Forestry Initiative® (SFI®) Certified Sourcing standards, ensuring that it comes from sustainably managed forests
- Kraft trays meet the requirements of the Recycled Paperboard Alliance 100% (RPA100) program, which is third party audited, and validates that the paperboard is made with 100% recycled fiber
- This product is recyclable only in the few communities that have appropriate recycling facilities
- Free of intentionally added PFAS

Operational Efficiency

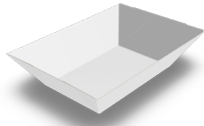

- Wide, rectangular opening for quick filling on the cooking line
- Stackable design takes up minimal back-of-house storage space
- Made in the USA, allowing for supply chain security and efficiency

Consumer Experience

- Kraft color to give a natural appearance or plain white for a minimalist look
- Durable structure performs when carrying, eating, or placed on a tray
- Open design allows for easy sharing with others or enjoying an individual meal
